

Local planning group seeks public's input on regional transportation plan

WRAL.com By Stephanie Beck, WRAL.com contributor November 20, 2019

DURHAM, N.C. — A local planning group is asking for the public's input on helping devise a comprehensive, regional transportation plan that can reduce the number of vehicles with just one passenger inside.

The Durham Chapel Hill Carrboro Metropolitan Planning Organization is seeking input on their plan to reduce the number of single-occupant vehicles across the Triangle.

The plan includes a range of solutions, including using more carpools and transit to teleworking and flexible work weeks.

For more information: Click here